THE CHAPERON.

The chaperon sits in the hall-room bright, and watches both man and maid, while the fair young lady's tender light, seeking her wondrous hair.

And here, where the bellies of a waiting town, are tripping it down the hall.

And in her attic, stately gown, sweetest she is of all.

Sweetest of all the room serene, And watches both man and maid, while the fair young lady's tender light, seeking her wondrous hair.

And here, where the bellies of a waiting town, are tripping it down the hall.

And in her attic, stately gown, sweetest she is of all.

In love with the chaperon, 'tis true, Most desperately is she true.

I love the point of her dainty shoe, The tip of her dainty glove.

And when she comes to the door, apart—The Queen of the room and fun, Will tell when the room is done.

When the room is done, and in peace, alone We sit, as we live, at last—Just I and this dear, dear chaperon I and in a day long past.

And I'll surely say, as a lover may, To this kiss, as a lover's kiss, 'Tis the girl with the hair snow white.

—Puck.

D. HECHINGER & CO

Our store in the past two weeks has been a veritable beehive; in fact, we experienced great difficulty to wait on our customers. We take occasion here to express our thanks to those who waited so patiently last Saturday until we found time to wait on them. Now, there is a cause for every effect. For $10, $12, $15 and $18 you buy Suits in our house that you cannot duplicate elsewhere.

Another thing that brings people who are particular as to what and how to wear clothes to us, is that we let nothing go out of our store unless we are satisfied it is "just right." In short, you make no mistake in having us to look after your needs in everything that goes to make up a gentleman's wardrobe.

Our Children's and Boys' Department is one of infinite satisfaction, both to parents and the youngsters; we please the first named in price and durability of the goods and we please the boys in style and fit. Our Hat and Shirt Departments are features in themselves. As for Shoes, we need but say that Hanan & Son's and W. L. Douglas are our leaders. We guarantee every pair we sell.

Have you seen our latest importation of Neckwear? It's worth your while to look at it. It will interest you. Notwithstanding the elegance of the goods, we sell them at the most popular price of 25 cents and 50 cents.

CURTAINS LACE NOT!

It's a feast for beauty loving eyes—our curtain section with its handsome tapestries, brocades, ropes and laces. The tapestry and rope portieres for this season are loom marvels. Almost everything in the very expensive sorts has its beauty carried into less costly goods. So furnishing is not a question of large expenditure but of taste. Tapestry Portieres $2.25 to $6.50 a pair. Lace Curtains $50 to $100 a pair.

A PORTIERE BARGAIN.

Bargain talk is something we indulge in cautiously—it must be founded on facts here. This bargain is so big it is a positive temptation to eloquence, were it not our principle to understate rather than overstate, that you may be happily surprised, not even faintly disappointed when you call upon us.

$1.69 ROPE.....$1.

PORTIERES for $1.

Full length, loosely woven twisted strands, large heavy tassels, eight different color combinations. Since they arrived two months ago, we have sold dozens of these pretty portieres for $1.69. The limited quantity that remains now go for $1. Be prompt; late comers may be disappointed.

There are 20,000 different kinds of butterflies.

Italians call locusts "little horses," and the German term for them is "hay horses."

During last century 400 human lives, 100,000,000 and 300 ships have been lost in fruitless efforts to find the North pole.

The stupid policy of hunters in South Africa has led to the almost total destruction of a host of wild animals—the quag-ga among them.

The 120,000,000 of iron and steel products exported last year exceeds the total of American manufactures exported twenty years ago.

Honolulu is to have a $2,000,000 packing-house establishment. The islanders will thus be able to get fresh meat without the long refrigeration plant.

Over 8,000 miles of new steam railway will be constructed in the United States this year. Oklahoma and Indian Territory are in the list for six miles.

The head of one of Queen Victoria's Chicago and Cincinnati hunting for some fool American girl who is willing to swap a few millions in hard cash for his "cheeky" self.

One of the most forcible and interesting communications received at the War Department, in regard to the abolition of the Army Canteen, is from Rev. WILLIAM J. DALTON, formerly of Detroit, Mich., who has full opportunity to observe the workings of the canteen at army posts in many large cities. Writing on this subject, Father DALTON says: "The LEXikon commends his words to every real temperance man and woman—

"Anything more mistaken than the anti-canteen law has never witnessed.

It could only have been forced, as it was, by a lot of money and men investing the last word, and a lot of men who were not so strong-minded.

"I think I never saw anything that so quickly drove sober men into drunkards' shoes as the operations of this same anti-canteen law. While at Detroit I had an opportunity to see soldiers from the neighboring fort, and I never saw them so drunken.

During the many times I have visited cities contiguous to army posts, including Kansas City, St. Louis, Detroit, I have watched the soldiers.

I did that because I liked the men a human depends upon for its very life. Always I found them to be well behaved, sober men. Imagine my horror last week, however, to see the same men raving drunk and next to fighting mad.

"It was all the canteen law. So long as they could have their glass of beer on a hot day in camp or a nip of something stronger when the air was sharper, they got good stuff, and they got not too much, because there was an officer or guard near by with a lot of armed sentries doing police duty.

Now the soldier must go down town to get his drink, and, without the supervision which before kept him straight, he is filled with vile stuff, a concoction, perhaps, of tobacco and alcohol, and instead of having a non-commissioned officer to warn him he has had enough and to forbid the bartender selling him any more, he is the boast of a companion urging him to spend every cent he has. The result is the only result that can be obtained—the man is drunk. "What is the end of this? That is only a theory. We can restrict the trade, but the canteen did, but we cannot wipe it out.

"I am a Knight of Father Mathew, a total abstainer, and would see every person in the world being, and I do not join these crusades. All the good the women want to do is to get rid of the good that was being done without they have utterly ruined."

There are 192 soldiers buried in Maplewood cemetery at Ripley.

Judge J. S. Power, Jr., D. D. Humphrey and Thomas R. Plisher were allowed $500 attorneys fee in the mandamus case of Judge Power against the Board of Trustees of the Graded High School at Zionsburg.

At Chattanooga, Tenn., William Kirkpatrick, a tripe, shot and killed his brother-in-law, John Amos, the latter later refused to take a drink with him.

The bullet passed through Amos' body and fatally injured an infant in the arms of Mrs. Amos. Bolton is old and his health is broken.

The Governor of Nebraska granted a conditional pardon to Henry Bolton, sentenced five years ago to nineteen years in the penitentiary, for having, as City Treasurer of Omaha, embezzled $100,000 of city funds. Bolton is old and his health is broken.

Printer's error has resulted in a queer state of things in Homer, Mich. At the recent election Samuel Woolley and W.

J. Webster, both gentlemen were elected, though neither got the place he sought.

In the operation of dredging navigable channels at the mouth of the Moruya and Shoalwater rivers, in New South Wales, it was discovered that the mud contained gold dust. An automatic gold saver was then attached to the dredging machinery, and it is estimated that during the past month the dredge has dumped the expenses of keeping the channel open.

The models of twenty-three United States war-vessels have arrived at the exposition grounds in Buffalo. The models form a part of the exhibit of the Navy Department. Among the famous warships of the Navy which the visitors will see in miniature are the Massachusetts, Olympia, Oregon, Maine, Brooklyn, Baltimore, Atlanta, Petrel, Vesuvius, Iowa, Texas, and New York.

Frederick Thomas, who lives on the Gettysburg battlefield, shoots birds and rabbits with a bow and arrow. So expert has he become that he seldom misses a shot. He subsists almost entirely upon game killed in this manner. His first home was a hole in the ground and a small cave in the hills. Three years ago, unassisted, succeeded in building himself a one-story cabin of logs.

It is stated that the wild birds in Windsor Great Park are to be shot by order of King Edward. The herd was presented to Queen Victoria by the Prince of Wales during his tour in India.

The animals have largely increased in numbers, and have had to be killed off periodically. They have been a considerable source of attraction to visitors, but they are dangerous, and several people have narrowly escaped injury.

One of the striking things shown by the last census is the remarkable increase of tenant farming. The percentage of farmers owning by lease showed a considerable increase by the census of 1900. For the whole country this percentage has increased in the last ten years nearly twice as fast as the percent of population of the Nation, four times that of the purely agricultural population and twice that of the farms operated by their owners.

The sanitary department of Havana has entered upon a war of extermination against the mosquito, the worst method of eliminating the yellow fever.

Kerosene is being placed in stagnant water to kill the mosquitoes in embryo.

General Wood has approved an appropriation of $1,000 for planting eucalyptus trees in the marshy and malar-ious districts around the city. The planting of the eucalyptus trees, which is there perennial and becomes a tall tree, is also proposed, its odor being disagreeable to mosquitoes.

KUKLUX BANDITS ROUTED.

George Cook, Notorious Outlaw, Wounded in a Battle With Detectives.

Maying, Ky., May 16.—A pitched battle occurred between a posse headed by John Wright, the celebrated mountain detective, and the Boone's Forks kuklux gang, which has been terrorizing this section years on the headwaters of Rock House creek, 12 miles north of here.

The courier arriving here from the scene says a country ball was in progress at the home of Albert Meade, a kuklux sympathizer, when the officers approached George Cook, one of the desperate kuklux outlaws and a son of the notorious Bill Cook who was leading in the ballroom. The other kuklux members were on the outside. Cook made a desperate resistance, but the kuklux members coming into play with their Winchesters. A pitched battle was fought,
